PUBLIC EMPLOYEE LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

DERRY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, NEA-NH

Petitioner

v.

DERRY COOPERATIVE SCHOOL DISTRICT

Respondent

CASE NO. T-0223:9

DECISION NO. 86-02

(Appeal of Dec. 85-94)

ORDER DENYING PETITION

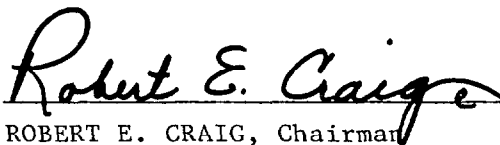

FOR REHEARING

PELRB on December 10, 1985, after a rehearing in the above case involving the reduction in the number of days the Derry Cooperative School District would use "Coordinators" beyond the regular academic year, reaffirmed its original decision whereby it granted the District's motion to dismiss on the basis that the issue had been fairly resolved through the arbitration process.

Pursuant to the N. H. Supreme Court decision in Appeal of White Mountains School Board, 125 N.H. 771, 775 (1984), Counsel for the Association filed another request for consideration, seeking reversal of PELRB's decision and a determination that such hours are mandatory subject of bargaining thereby restoring the status quo ante and making affected employees whole.

After reviewing the record, PELRB orders that the petition for rehearing be and same is hereby DENIED.

Signed this 9th day of January, 1986.
